PONTERIO & ASSOCIATES, INC.

TERMS OF SALE

1. This is a mail bid sale, conducted by PONTERIO & ASSOCIATES, INC. Subject to our consent, liberty for bidding by sellers and/or consignors is hereby reserved.
 2. A 10% buyers charge will be added to the price of each lot. This charge will be added to all invoices.
 3. Terms of this sale are strictly cash with payment due immediately upon receipt of invoice. Payment by check must be payable in U.S. currency only and drawn on a U.S. Bank. NO credit card purchases will be accepted. Title to all lots remains with consignor until paid in full.
 4. Minors are expressly forbidden to bid in this sale.
 5. Bidders not known to us must furnish satisfactory credit references, sufficiently in advance of the sale to allow for checking, or a deposit equal to 25% of the bids submitted. Deposits submitted will be applied to purchases and any unused portion of such deposit will be promptly refunded.
 6. All bids must be per lot as numbered in this catalogue. No lots will be broken.
 7. We reserve the right to withdraw any lot prior to the sale.
 8. All items in this catalogue are guaranteed to be genuine unless specifically stated otherwise in the lot description. Claims to the contrary must be made in writing within three days after receipt of the lot. Any returned lot must be intact and in its original unopened holder. No lot may be returned without prior written consent. In no event may any lot be returned after thirty (30) days from the date of sale. LATE REMITTANCE FOR PURCHASES CONSTITUTES JUST CAUSE TO ABROGATE ALL RETURN PRIVILEGES FOR ANY REASON.
 9. Lots that have been examined prior to the sale may not be returned for any reason other than authenticity.
 10. Grading is a subjective description in the opinion of the cataloguer, as to the state of preservation of a particular coin or lot. The term "Proof" or "Specimen" is used to describe a method of manufacture, and not a grade or condition. Such terms are the opinion of the cataloguer and shall be deemed to be part of the description and not an attribution. No warranty, whether expressed or implied, is made with respect to such adjectival descriptions, which can and do vary among experts.
 11. Please note: Auction sales are not approval sales. You must assume the responsibility for paying for all material that is awarded to you.
 12. Bids for all lots must be submitted in even dollar amounts, or they will be reduced to the next even dollar amount. Successful bidders will be awarded the lot at a nominal advance over the second highest bid. When identical bids are received, for a lot, preference is given to the first bid received. We reserve the right to refuse any bid, that we believe has not been made in good faith.
 13. We can not be responsible for errors in bidding. Please make certain that you bid on the correct lot and that your bid is the maximum that you are willing to pay.
 14. An estimate is provided for each lot. This estimate represents, in the opinion of the cataloguer, the current market value of the lot. Lots may, of course, sell for above or below this estimate.
 15. All photographs in this catalogue are of the actual items being sold.
 16. Postage, insurance and sales tax, if required by law to be collected, will be added to the invoice for any lot(s) invoiced to successful bidders. All lots delivered in the state of California are subject to applicable sales tax. Individuals purchasing lots for resale must submit an exemption certificate, signed by the purchaser or his agent and recognized by the state of California, with their current resale certificate number or be subject to the sales tax.
 17. We reserve the right to require payment in full before delivering any lot to a successful bidder. It is the buyer's responsibility and obligation to have the lots fully insured while in his/her possession. Risk of loss is on the buyer. All lots sent to foreign countries, including Canada and Mexico, will be billed at an additional 1/2 of 1% for insurance. The minimum insurance fee is $5.00. Please send shipping instructions. Normally all lots will be sent via registered mail.
 18. In the event a bidder fails to make remittance promptly, we reserve the right to resell the merchandise and bidder agrees to pay for the reasonable cost of such a sale and also to pay any difference between the resale price and the previously successful bid.
 19. If the invoice for this sale is not paid for in full, when due, the unpaid balance will bear interest at the highest rate permitted by law until it is paid in full. If the matter is referred to an attorney for collection, bidder agrees to pay all attorney fees, court costs and other costs incurred by Ponterio & Associates, Inc. The courts of San Diego County, California shall have exclusive jurisdiction and venue over any suit initiated by Ponterio & Associates, Inc. to collect past due invoices and the service of process by certified/registered mail, return receipt requested, shall be sufficient to confer "in personam" jurisdiction over bidder.
 20. We reserve the right to postpone this sale for a reasonable period of time, as the result of any act of war, natural calamity or significant relevant event, which, in the judgment makes it inadvisable to hold the sale as scheduled.
 21. Our ultimate liability for any item is the price paid.
 22. By bidding in this sale, bidder personally guarantees payment; if a corporation is the bidder, the officers and/or principals of the corporation agree to personally guarantee payment.
 23. All bid sheets submitted by mail bidders must be signed. Company bids must be submitted with the signature of a duly authorized agent of such company.
 24. Bidding in this sale constitutes acceptance by the bidder of all the forementioned terms and conditions of sale.
 25. Please remember that the mail is sometimes very slow. Please mail you bid sheet early to be sure we receive your bids prior to the close of the sale.
 26. We offer the service of limiting the total purchase of bidders. This service is available only to those bidders who wish to limit purchases to $500. or more. To limit purchases, simply fill in the proper areas on the mail bid sheet. Bids may then be submitted for amounts up to three times the amount of your limit total figure. You may also enter your bids in an order of your preference. We will attempt to buy for you up to your limit in the order you designate. You may also select to bid on two similar lots with instructions to buy only one of them. For instance, if lot 102 and 103 were similar and you wanted only one of them, bid on both with instruction to buy only one. We will then attempt to but for you one of the two for the lowest price.

INSTRUCTIONS TO NEW MAIL BIDDERS

Bidding by mail permits you to participate in an auction as though you were attending it in person. The procedure is really quite simple. You tell us what you want, and the maximum amount you are willing to pay. We then, as your personal agent, try to buy the items listed for you at the lowest possible price.

The enclosed mail bid form has two sides for you to fill in. The front side provides all the information we will need to register you as a bidder, execute your bids for you and deliver your lots to you if you are a successful bidder. Please answer all the questions that may apply to you. DON'T FORGET TO SIGN YOUR BID SHEET.

On the back side are pairs of columns where you may list your bids. After carefully reading the lot description, write down the lot number and the maximum amount you are willing to pay for that lot. Don't forget that a 10% buyer's fee will be added to your actual purchase price if you are the lucky bidder. Continue to list lot numbers and bids for each of the lots you are interested in buying.

LOT	BID
30	200
133	350
267	500
910	150
1169	600

When we receive your bid sheet, we will record your bids at the amount you have authorized us to bid for you, and we will, in addition, note any lots where an increase is authorized if absolutely needed to win the lot. For example, if the sample bid sheet shown at the right were yours, we would enter your bid on lot #30 as $200. If yours was the highest bid received, you would be the purchaser at $200. (plus 10%) or perhaps even less. If the second highest bid received on the lot was substantially less, your bid would be reduced to a "normal" increment above that second-highest bid, just as it would be if you were present at the sale yourself to execute your own bids. If you have authorized a percentage increase on the front side of your bid sheet and the bidding by others has exceeded your basic bid, we will then, as your personal agent, increase your bid to the minimum amount necessary to obtain the lot for you. The authorized increase will never be used except when your basic bid is exceeded.

Before you mail your bid sheet, do be sure to check it over to make certain you have bid on the correct lot(s) and that your bids are the ones you are both willing and able to pay for. Enjoy the catalogue, place bids on everything you would like to buy. If time is running out and you feel your bid sheet may arrive too late to be included, you may call our office between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, giving us the lot numbers and amount you will pay for each lot, over the telephone. Please make sure you immediately send in your bid sheet for confirmation. Also, you may FAX your bid sheet to us. As your personal agents we wish you every success.

VIEWING OF LOTS

Lots will be available for viewing by prospective bidders at our office each day, Monday through Friday, by APPOINTMENT ONLY, between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. July 17, 1995 through August 1, 1995 only.

READ ANY GOOD BOOKS LATELY?

I do quite a bit of reading related to my work here, mostly in new references for familiarization. In some cases, this isn't the easiest task in the world due to limitations in languages other than English. I can muddle along in French, Spanish, Italian and, to a lesser extent, German, depending on the complexity of the text. If there is very limited text and lots of illustrations, life is considerably easier, but there isn't much to be gained in background information. This works well, however, for identifying Sicilian bronzes or Corinthian Staters by Calciati numbers (and thank heavens for the added text in English!).

We frequently obtain references with informative textual material, and I do occasionally take some of these home to read; there are always things to be done around the office and far fewer interruptions at home. Some of the references which have gone home with me include "Coinage of the Crusades and the Latin East" by D.M. Metcalf, "Coins of the Crusader States" by Malloy, Preston and Seltman, "Roman Provincial Coinage" by Burnett, Amandry and Ripolles, and "The Coinage in the Name of Alexander the Great and Philip Arrhidaeus" by M.J. Price. In fact, these have left the office with me on more than a few occasions; each contains a tremendous wealth of information. Another book, "Medieval European Coinage: The Early Middle Ages" by Grierson and Blackburn, has kept me occupied for more than a few sessions over the 9 years since its publication; where are the other volumes of this series???

I would hope that all collectors read about the many aspects of their fields of interest, but I know that many people don't find reading to be a pleasant activity. I happen to enjoy reading and confess that I am not really interested in athletics (other than some of the Olympic events), working in the yard, or doing handyman things around the house. Two of these are sometimes hard to avoid but the third isn't. My preference concerns histories of most sorts, mainly of Europe, the Crusades (who would have guessed?), Rome, and military histories of all types, as long as they aren't TOO academic or dry. I have a good friend, a former college professor of mine, who published a wonderful book about a particular "war" in which tanks were widely used by both sides for the first time; great, but it really got bogged down at times. OK, folks, Stewart's quiz time: What, Where and When was this particular "war", and who were the opponents? I promise some sort of "prize" for the first correct response, which I may share with the rest of you later.

Recently I read about a particular book which I referred to, "read" and worked with while a graduate student, the "Domesday" Book of William I. For those who may not be familiar with this, William the Conqueror ordered a nation-wide survey of Britain. because, as king, he "more or less" owned everything and needed to know what was there and who held it in his name. His commissioners visited every area of the land and enumerated the assets of the country, listing what was there and the valuation in 1066 and in 1086. I had access to reprints of facsimiles for my studies, and, after viewing the original in London, proposed to the British Records Office the publication of a color facsimile of the Book: they were polite but the response was basically "no way". It turns out that such a project was undertaken in 1986 when the Book was unbound for repair and reconditioning, and I saw an advertisement for it the other day: color reproduction of every page of both volumes, mounted as was originally done in wood (taken from a 15th. century house) wrapped in leather, with a silver Penny of William I inset in the front cover (with a 1964 Penny as well), a line-by-line

English translation in 2 other volumes, plus a few other references. All this for the modest sum of 7,500 - Pounds. Well, I can always put this on my Birthday or Christmas List, or if I hit the Lotto...

Recently I obtained the six volume "A History of the Crusades" edited by K.M. Setton, and am just getting started on volume III, on 14th. and 15th. century crusades. Some sections are slow reading, but other parts read quite well: these comments are not directed at the content of the work but to my inability to focus adequately on some of the material. I am very eager to get into several of the volumes ahead of me, but feel I need to do this "one step at a time".

I enjoy reading fiction which relates to history and prefer that which sticks fairly closely to "the way things were". Several years ago I became aware of Colleen McCulloch, the author of "The Thorn Birds" and other best-selling novels, and especially about her "The First Man of Rome", a novel about Marius (and Sulla). Just after that, I had occasion to see a televised interview with her in which she said that she had read and studied everything she could find about Rome during the last century of the Republic and, when she could find nothing else to read or study, she began writing; this was 15 years after she began the project. At any rate, this book, as well as "The Grass Crown" and "Fortunes Favorites" which follow it chronologically, make excellent reading. It has been more than a year since the third of this series came out and several more are to follow: well? I'm waiting!

Suspense and/or action fiction also provides interesting "distraction" reading, but I have only a few authors I prefer. Tom Clancy has produced some fast paced and well researched stories, but what is next for John Ryan? My wife and I both find Clive Cussler entertaining, in part due to the peculiar twists he has in his tales. Alistair MacLean produced some good thrillers, and an author whose works I haven't read for a long time is C.S. Forester; there are more than a few books in the Horatio Hornblower series as well as others relating to the adventures of the sea.

I have never considered poetry as pleasure reading. As ever, there are exceptions; I like Robert Service. However, for a long time I disliked some of his gloomier works about the Yukon. I have re-read most of his works in the past few years and my "understanding" or view of these poems has changed. Several years ago, my wife and I spent a few days in Dawson City. I had wanted to go there for years due to the writings of Robert Service, and because an uncle of my mother had been there during the great goldrush and actually brought some Klondike gold back to his home in Colorado. Dawson City is a quaint town, looking much as it did shortly after the turn of the century. The whole area is a Canadian National Park and they do their best to keep it looking "original"; not REALLY original as most of the housing the first few years consisted of tents and shabby log cabins. At any rate, one of the daily attractions during the "season" is a recitation of some of Services' poetry in front of his cabin by a gentlemen dressed in 1890's attire. Family descendants of Robert Service have practically adopted him as a family member, or perhaps a reincarnation!

With all this, I hope that you, too, have pleasant reading pastimes, and raise my initial question again? Read any good books lately?
